IN TODAY'S LOUISIANA TURN TO ALLEN & GOOCH

Allen & Gooch, A Law Corporation litigates for clients across Louisiana with offices in Lafayette and New Orleans. Distinguished by their intellectual curiosity and drive for excellence, our attorneys offer the wide-ranging experience and in-depth knowledge necessary to provide sophisticated legal representation for the diverse legal needs of Louisiana businesses. Our attorneys immerse themselves in their clients' businesses and business objectives so that they can pursue the precise legal strategies that best further these goals.

When you come to Allen & Gooch, you will be provided with expertise geared to your specific legal problem, a thorough evaluation of legal risks balanced against your business objectives, clear explanations of your legal options and timely resolution of your legal problems. We are dedicated to resolving disputes for our clients through litigation, alternative dispute resolution such as mediation and commercial arbitration, or through any other legal means necessary to protect the interests of our clients.

Backed by a skilled support staff and the latest in technology, our attorneys also regularly participate in continuing education programs to stay abreast of changes in state and federal law. In addition, we host various seminars to keep business professionals informed about topics such as business planning, workers' compensation, insurance regulations and much more. All of our clients are provided with a level of experience and expertise that offers uncommon value and legal prowess that is unsurpassed in this region.

From business transactions to insurance & casualty litigation and so much more – Allen & Gooch combines extraordinary legal ability with a proven reputation in litigation to bring our clients added value by receiving the highest possible quality of legal representation.
